Concrete Wave Buyers Guide 2008

Here are all four covers of the buyers guide inside you will find an all new format of listing over 160 companies and gear with profiles, page after page of awesome, impressive and shreddable gear. All new companies and all new designs. Some you have never heard of and many companies you know well, dropping new goods for you to check out. This is the tome of skateboarding gear you need. We know you will be getting a copy with your subscription of Concrete Wave but we have it here for you to download in pdf format. We know your hard copy of the mag will be spine broken and dog eared in no time anyways.

Download the Concrete Wave Buyers Guide HERE From Michael Brooke "Concrete Wave in association with Silverfish Longboarding is proud to present the 2008 buyer's guide. You'll see quite a bit of difference in this year's guide. Enjoy and remember, if you see something you like, make sure you tell the company you saw it in the CW guide!"

Support CW and the Buyers Guide by giving feedback to the companies and retailers you find in the buyers guide. You can also post in the CW Forum about your favorite products and items, give feedback on the BG and suggest additions for the next issue. Remember you can also find all the Buyers Guide items in the Reviews Section here on the 'Fish. Now go download and start reading!
