LandyachtzThe Eh Team Vidoes

A ton of work goes into video and film production, if you've made a video before I'm sure you know, and if you haven't I hope you make a video one day soon, it's a ton of fun. In December some of the guys at Landyachtz sat down and came up with answers to questions like; Do we want a long video or a short one? Online or Dvd release? What should it cover? Who should be in it? Where should we film? When should we film?

To get the most interest out of the project (for longboarders everywhere and ourselves) we decided to produce a series of short format Eh Team videos to release and spread throughout the internet. We'll be showcasing not only some of the sick riding sessions going down but also a little bit about what's happening at the Landyachtz factory.

The episodes will cover product development, road trips all over the world, tons of event coverage, skate sessions, the who's who at landyachtz, tight racing action, elbow-rubbing speed sessions, corner drifting, a ton of party action, a behind the scenes look at Landyachtz, and what goes into running an event like Coast Longboardng's Attack of Danger Bay.

The best part of this plan is that there is no script and we're not entirely sure what or who will be in the next video, but we're sure it'll be worth watching!
