RPP Team News

Things have been insane in the last few months. We are working very hard on new models with anew breaking trough nano-tubes technology. Yvon Labarthe is all ready riding on this amazing aero space technology. We will send you in a few weeks a press release regarding this. We also have a very cool new school street luge design, that is still tested by Ivon him self

We are very proud to announce are new team:

Yvon Labarte a gravity legend that is a partner, developer and pro rider

Robert Stack a friend and our team manager. Bobby aka Crazy Bobby Stack Ignacio A. Miranda Lagunas from Chile, he works as a pilot and in his spare time he is a pilot with the phantom carbon top mount on asphalt.

a very promising young guy Nick Harris 19 years old from Cleveland.

We also will sponsor some events this year like: <http://www.peyragudes-2-luxe-cup.com/> and more...
